Gen 4 Word of Life

March 2013

We love everyone just like Jesus did

"Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." (Jn 8:7)

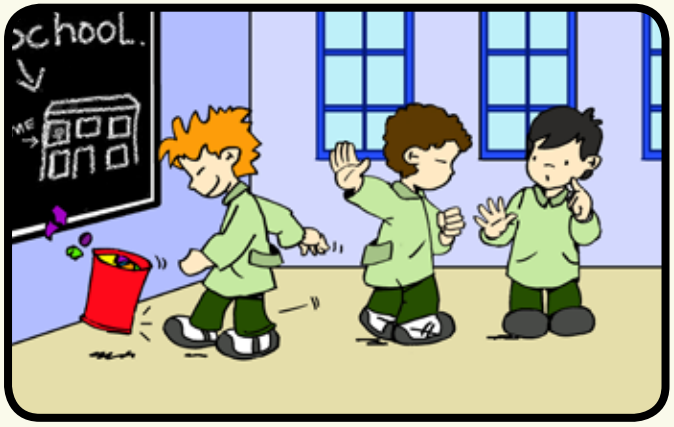
At the time of Jesus there were many very strict rules to follow.

One day some men brought a sinful woman into the city square and condemned her to death. They told Jesus, "According to our law, we have to kill this woman by throwing rocks at her. What do you say about this?" Jesus was writing something in the sand.

He stood up and said: "Let anyone among you who has never done something wrong be the first to throw a stone at her." The men who had condemned her started to leave, one after the other.

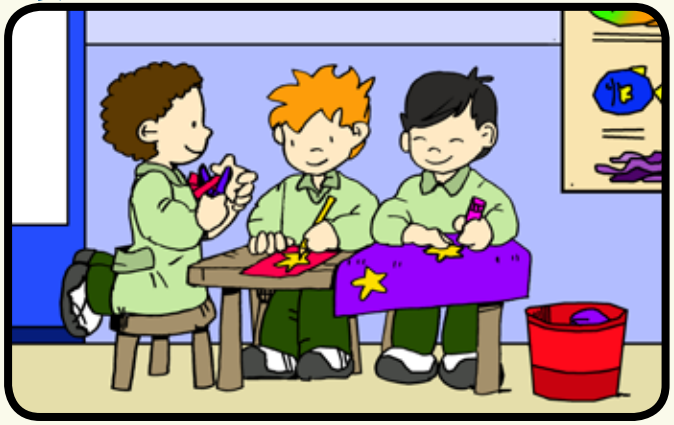
Jesus then looked at the woman and said: "Where are they? Has anyone condemned you?" And she answered, "No one, Lord." Jesus told her, "Neither will I condemn you. Go, and from now on, don't sin anymore." (see Jn 8:1-11)

Marcelo from Chile tells his experience:



There's a new boy in my class, Guglielmo, and since he doesn't know our language well, he had to repeat a year. Sometimes he does bad things and so the others don't want anything to do with him, especially Manuel.

I tried my best to help him become part of our class. Then I convinced my friend Manuel to be nice to him and become friends with him.



One day we had to work in groups. Manuel and I chose Guglielmo to be in our group.
